

GENEALOGY SEMINAR SCOTTISH GENEALOGIST

The Southland Branch of the New Zealand Society of Genealogists is hosting a Guest Speaker

Graeme Mackenzie MA (Cantab.)

(Professional Scots genealogist and Clan historian)

Graeme Mackenzie is a professional genealogist and clan historian who lives and works in Inverness in Scotland. He has been the genealogist and historian for the Clan Mackenzie since 1955, and has served since 2007 as the Chairman of the Highland Family History Society. Graeme chairs the Association of Highland Clans and Societies, representing some 22 clans, mostly based in the northern and western Highlands of Scotland.

He is an accomplished author with over 20 books and significant publications to his credit. His latest book "Genealogy in the Gaidhealtachd - Clan and Family History in the Highlands of Scotland" will be available for sale at this meeting.

Graeme is webmaster for the Clan Macmillan website at www.clanmanmillan.org

Graeme will give a talk on
Wednesday 19 February 2014
7.00 pm

(Please be seated by 6.50pm as Library doors close at 7pm.)

First Floor Meeting Room, Invercargill Public Library

Clans, Septs and Surnames in the Highlands of Scotland

You are welcome to attend.

Entry : $2 per person at the door.
(A light supper will conclude the evening)

Southland Branch, New Zealand Society of Genealogists
PO Box 1329, Invercargill.
Secretary : Ms Lesley Instone (Ph. 03-217 8825).
Email: Southland@genealogy.org.nz